

Cry of the Persecuted Church

Please allow me to introduce myself to you: My name is El Masih and until 1997, Pakistan was my home. I was born in a traditional Christian family. Jesus saved me at the age of 25.

After I was saved, Jesus called me to preach the gospel. He opened the necessary doors for me to attend and graduate from Bible College. By the power of the Holy Spirit, I immediately began to plant churches. By His guidance and power, 13 churches were planted during the first 2 years, then 11 more over the next 2 years in different areas of Pakistan. Now there are over 300 churches, two Bible schools, and a child-support program in Pakistan, 103 churches in India, Our Father's Home (an orphanage in India), 35 church-run Bible schools in Sri Lanka, 1 church in South Africa, a few churches and an orphanage in Rwanda and Uganda, and some work in Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

I have been blessed to have traveled to 46 states here in the USA, and I have spoken in over 1,000 churches of all sizes. I have spoken at Focus on the Family in Colorado Springs, Pastor John Piper's church in Minneapolis, Minnesota, the national conference for The Voice of the Martyrs, and many regional conferences just to name a few places. I participate in a television program that reaches into many eastern countries each week that can be accessed online at www.barkat.tv. Praise God, many lost souls are calling in and being saved.

God has impressed on me that I must fast and pray. God has done so many wonderful and miraculous things for us! God has placed a powerful burden on my heart to share with the church in America what HE is doing in His Kingdom around the world ... to speak on behalf of the persecuted church, or on any other subject that would minister to the people in this country and abroad.

By God's grace I was given an opportunity to co-author a book, The Fearless Love in Midst of Terror. My second book is in the process of being published. More details about my born-again experience, and the ministry I work with daily, are available in my book.

All glory belongs to Jesus, for HE made everything possible.
